

Visa Days or not. In all cases, you are responsible for paying any associated fees for your visa application and interview. A J-1 exchange visitor visa is necessary for your entry into the United States.

5. Issuance of J-1 Exchange Visitor Visa: Upon receipt of your J-1 exchange visitor visa you must: (i) review it thoroughly to make sure it is indeed a J-1 exchange visitor visa and all of your biographical data is correct and (ii) inform IIE via BrazilLTEfall@iie.org that your visa has been issued and that you will be departing for the U.S. shortly. Your scholarship is available only if you possess a valid passport and a J-1 exchange visitor visa.

AGREEMENT TO TERMS: By signing this TOA below, I acknowledge that I fully understand, accept and agree to comply with all provisions stated above, including returning to Brazil upon completion of my authorized program. In addition, I certify that I understand and accept that neither CAPES/CNPq nor IIE has any responsibility, financial or otherwise, in connection with any program other than that specified in this TOA. Moreover, I will comply with the laws of the United States and affirm that I have not and will not promote or engage in violence, terrorism or the destruction of any State through violent means. The provisions of this TOA are not negotiable.

In the event you do not attend the pre-scheduled Visa Days and your original Form DS-2019 will need to be mailed to Brazil, IIE will send it in care of your BSMP Coordinator at your institution in Brazil. To ensure safe delivery, it is extremely important that you follow the instructions below:

1. Provide the name and contact information of your BSMP Coordinator below. The information you provide should be in Portuguese, not English. The information should also be printed very clearly so it is easy to read.
2. Alert your BSMP Coordinator that your original Form DS-2019 will be sent to his/her attention. If your BSMP Coordinator will not be available to receive your original Form DS-2019 for any reason, write to bswbimmigration@iie.org as soon as possible to provide IIE with an alternate contact at your university in Brazil.
